The Gate Theater of Chiang Mai This year's performance will take place on February 22nd and will feature four gripping short plays that delve into themes of mystery, suspense, and the supernatural. This engaging format has been a beloved part of The Gate Theater's history, where actors perform with scripts in hand, allowing the audience to fully immerse themselves in the story through expressive reading and powerful dialogue. We're thrilled to present these four classic radio dramas: Sorry, Wrong Number: In this tense and thrilling drama, an invalid woman named Mrs. Elbert Stevenson accidentally overhears a murder plot on the telephone. As she tries desperately to prevent the crime, her sense of fear and helplessness grows, leading to a shocking and unforgettable climax. The House in Cypress Canyon: A young couple moves into a seemingly peaceful home, only to discover that it harbors dark and terrifying secrets. This chilling mystery blends elements of horror and suspense, keeping the audience on the edge of their seats as the truth slowly unfolds. The Hitchhiker: Ronald Adams embarks on a cross-country journey, only to be haunted by the relentless appearance of a mysterious hitchhiker. Despite his attempts to escape, the figure continues to appear, pushing Adams to the brink of madness. This psychological thriller explores themes of fate and fear, creating an atmosphere of intense suspense. The Monkey's Paw: This classic tale explores the eerie consequences of tampering with fate. When a magical talisman grants three wishes, a family's deepest desires quickly spiral into their worst nightmares. This spine-chilling story delves into themes of greed, grief, and the unforeseen consequences of tempting fate. This is a unique opportunity to be part of a truly engaging theatrical experience. Auditions are open to everyone—no prior experience required. If you're interested, please reach out to us for more details on how to get involved.
